Preach What You Practice

(Third in a three-part series on worship at Our Savior's)

The world is in love with sayings; brief statements that convey a point in a clever or poignant way. In fact, my alter ego, The Sign Guy, has made a boatload of money by displaying sayings for an audience of 8000 everyday. One of the reasons I like these creative idioms is because they are often memorable, and their meanings travel with us over miles and years. Sayings that our parents used drove us crazy when we were young, but then we find ourselves spewing them to our own children or grandchildren, as if we made them up ourselves! They are timeless; these axioms that teach us valuable lessons.

Because I like words (most preachers do!), I will often play with words and phrases. For example, "Don't sweat the petty things" is sound advice, but "Don't pet the sweaty things" is funnier. Or I think an improvement of an age-old saying would be "Feed a cold AND feed a fever!" But there are times when the slightest twist of a phrase changes its meaning entirely.

Take, for example, that saying that I get a lot: "Practice what you preach, Pastor Steve!" It's a bit of a lecture, is it not?, a shaking of the finger toward the hypocrite who says one thing but does something else. But turning the phrase around changes everything: "Preach what you practice." Now it becomes a word of encouragement to boldly proclaim how you live. We'd never offer that encouragement to someone who is a derelict; someone who lives recklessly, or foolishly. But we might say it to someone whose life has become an example to be emulated.

I assume that more than half of the people who are reading these words right now are faithful in their attendance at worship. In worship, you have found strength and hope, wisdom and understanding. Do you have any idea how impactful your faithfulness is? Do you have any idea what a witness your car in the parking lot is on Sunday mornings, or how powerful the example of your weekly offering may be for those who rarely give? Do you know what an encouragement you are to me, sitting in the same place, Sunday after Sunday, as Pastor Linda and I stand before you in humility? This is your practice.

But have you ever spoken to people about the value of worship? Have you ever "preached" what you practice, week after week? Our society has multitudinous reasons for NOT attending church services, but few are the reasons people have heard FOR worshipping. Your voice needs to be heard. Your invitation for someone to come to worship is more effective than any mailing, any brochure, or any church sign could ever be. For you to say "Attending worship makes a difference in my life; I wonder if it would make difference in yours?" may be just the nudge some people need to change a pattern of absence.

St. Francis of Assisi, a very wise man of the 12th century, once said "Always preach Christ; when necessary, use words." Well, sometimes our words are necessary. Our actions speak volumes, but our words of encouragement, our words of guidance, words of gentle persuasion – spoken in love – can be the herald that some people need to hear in this clamoring world. "Preach what you practice?" Yes, friend. Preach it boldly.

Pax, Pastor Steve

Congregational Meeting

Sunday, October 10, 11:45 a.m.

Report on Financial Status of Our Savior's

President Steve Ordahl has called a congregational meeting for Sunday, October 10th, at 11:45 a.m., after the conclusion of regular Sunday morning services. This meeting was requested at last January's Annual Meeting to report the financial status of our congregation and determine if any further action is warranted.

Anyone may attend this meeting. Confirmed members of Our Savior's are eligible to vote. The nursery will be available during the meeting time.

Volunteers Needed

Highway Clean-up Event

We will have our bi-annual fall Adopt a highway clean up on October 30th at 9:00 am.

We meet at Otto Berg Park and go for one mile on Stonebridge Trail from Highway 96 to Otchipwe Trail. We will provide bags and vests.

It takes about 15 individuals one hour to complete. Why not involve the whole family and go for a nice Saturday morning walk and help keep our city beautiful too.

If you have any questions contact Mary Knuteson at emknuteson@usfamily.net. / 651-430-3152.

Readers, Ushers & Greeters for Sunday Services

Each Sunday, a host of volunteers work to make sure each person in attendance has a welcoming and worshipful experience at Our Savior's. From greeting everyone who comes through the door, to reading the morning lessons, to making sure everyone has a hymn and a place to sit, their work is invaluable and for their help we are all grateful.

Please consider becoming part of this effort by volunteering for one of several opportunities each week as a greeter, a reader, communion assistant, or usher. A sign-up book can be found on the Welcome Desk, organized by dates and tasks. If you know you will be available some Sunday(s) in the future, pencil in your name to reserve your spot.

Your help will be appreciated by all!

An Evening for Liturgies— Learn about our ELW

Wednesday, Oct. 27th, 6:30 p.m.

Supporting the mission of the church, which is the mission of God in Christ for the world, is an ultimate goal of Evangelical Lutheran Worship (ELW). Through liturgy and song the people of God participate in that mission, for here God comes with the good news to save. And through liturgy and song, God nourishes us for that mission and goes with us to bear the creative and redeeming Word of God, Jesus Christ, to the whole world. —ELW Introduction, pg. 9

As part of our educational focus on worship this year and in conjunction with the Faith Partners composer-in-residence program, William Beckstrand will be leading a special event at Our Savior's on Wednesday, October 27th, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

During this time, Bill will be guiding us through the different liturgies found in our ELW hymnal. This is a chance not only to listen to and sing along, but also learn more about what liturgy means to our worship. The Kingdom Choir will be hosting this event and refreshments will be served. All are welcome to come.

If you would like to come but need a ride, please contact the office: 651-439-5704 or email: info@oslcstillwater.org.

Praising God Through Gifts of Music

Interested in joining the band and helping out for the holidays? (All instruments welcome!)

Ever wonder what it takes to play in the bell choir? (Give it try some evening and see if you like it!)

There is a deep well of talent at Our Savior's and members willing to share and grow their faith through the performance of music. Every group will welcome you. Check out the variety of offerings on the church website: www.oslcstillwater.org, under Ministries / Music.

Adult Learning and Discipleship

Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God- what is good and acceptable and perfect. (Romans 12.2)

Using our TALENTS to iSERVE Jesus!

OSLC is a Strengths-based church. We believe that God has given us TALENTS to be used to bring God's kingdom. OSLC uses Clifton StrengthsFinder to measure the presence of talents in 34 general areas or themes. Pastor Linda is a StrengthsFinder coach and teaches a "Living Your Strengths" class every January. Each month we highlight one talent. If you want to learn more about StrengthsFinder contact Pastor Linda: Linda@oslctillwater.org

Talent of the Month: INTELLECTION

But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. —Luke 2:19

After three days they found Jesus in the temple courts, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. Everyone who heard Jesus was amazed at his understanding and his answers. —Luke 2:46-47

You like to think, exercising the "muscles" of your brain—stretching them in multiple directions. You are the kind of person who enjoys your time alone because it is your time for musing and reflection-pondering! You are introspective and need time to "digest" information.

Choose iSERVE items in which you can think. What about leading a small group, joining Book of the Month or stopping in Sunday Morning Magazine to hear some new information to think about. Volunteer to be part of a task force that needs deep thinkers to address an issue that needs a solution.

"The test of a first-rate intelligence is the ability to hold two opposed ideas at the same time, and still retain the ability to function."
F. Scott Fitzgerald, novelist

Carr honors his grandparents and parents as he tells of the courage and strength with which they lived an African-American journey in this country. Tony will share parts of his Black Memorabilia collection that he began in 1986. These pieces bring their own powerful testimony of the race relations journey our country has and continues to face.

Children & Family Ministry

Focus Groups

You are invited to attend a Children & Family Ministry Focus Group.

Our Savior's is in the midst of transition in Children & Family Ministry. During this interim period, there is an opportunity to listen and discern God's call to the Our Savior's community on how to best use the talents, gifts and resources God has given us, in relationship to the future of ministering to children and families.

To begin this discernment process, 3 Focus Groups have been scheduled to listen to thoughts, visions, ideas and hopes for the future of this ministry. The Focus Groups will be facilitated by Karen Gieseke, Interim Children & Family Ministry Director. Childcare is available at each meeting time (please RSVP to: nursery@oslctillwater.org).

The dates and times are:

Sunday, October 3, 6-7:30pm

Monday, October 4, 6-7:30pm

Wednesday, October 6, 6:30-8:00pm

All of the congregation is invited to choose one Focus Group to attend. The time will be a shared time of vision and ideas, thoughtful processing of possibilities and a time to listen for God's call to us as individuals and community.

RSVP is appreciated. For questions, contact Karen Gieseke, Interim Children & Family Ministry Director at cfm@oslctillwater.org or 651-439-5704 ext 23.

Your Input Wanted—Online Survey Coming

There will be a survey available to congregation in October, regarding Children & Family Ministry

As part of the visioning and discernment process for the future of Children & Family Ministry at Our Savior's, an online survey will be made available to all OSLC members, sometime in October.

This is a chance for the OSLC community to respond to specific areas of inquiry regarding children and family ministry, both current and future.

Please watch for details on how to participate in this ministry based, information gathering experience.

For questions, contact Karen Gieseke, Interim Children & Family Ministry Director at cfm@oslctillwater.org or 651-439-5704 ext 23.

"Well done, good and faithful servant!"

(From Matthew 25)

Children and Family Ministry is up and off to a wonderful start with Sunday School, WAVE, and Family FaithMarkers. A HUGE thanks to all who have helped get us off to a "rocking" start.

As we prepare to transition into looking at what our future together might look like let us take time to pause and reflect on our past and celebrate the ministries of Sharon Stratmoen (Director of Children and Family Ministry 2003-2010) and her assistant Terri Green. They have impacted the lives of many children and families at Our Saviors and so it is right and good that we should send them off with a gift from their OSLC family.

A "God Sighting" book will be available for you to sign and write a note of thanksgiving — one for Sharon and one for Terri. Both books will be set out in the Gathering Area from October 3rd through the 13th.

October LADC Events

October 7-8: LADC Bike Day for children during school.

October 14-15: LADC Conferences— No classes. Childcare will be offered for families during their conference time.

October 21-22: MEA—No classes.

October 28-29: Harvest Parties for children at LADC during class time.

Parents: October is Fire Safety Month

Did you know that Fire Safety Month got its roots from the Great Chicago Fire that began October 9th, 1871. Fire Safety Month helps us all revisit important fire safety tips and reminds us to keep your family and children safe.

Safety Tips

Have an escape plan that includes:

1. Two different ways out
2. Someone assigned to help those that need help getting out
3. Someone assigned to call 911
4. A meeting place for everyone once they get out

Make it a family fun night! Plan an evening to talk with your children about fire safety and practice your family escape plan. Make this a fun, family time together. A great treat after you practice your plan is a simple way to add some fun to your evening.

Sunday School & WAVE Offerings Help Change the World!

The offering gifts our children bring to Sunday School and WAVE will again be helping support Hannah Zellmer, who is teaching at LAMB School in Bangladesh.

Our Savior's children and families have supported Hannah in the past, and are blessed to receive updates and correspondence regularly from Hannah, sharing the latest news of her mission work.

Please continue to offer your support with the offering gifts your family is able to share. Your partnership transforms lives around the world!

Sunday & WAVE! Help others stay warm this Winter! "Wear Warm Mittens" mission!

Winter is coming soon and there are many children and women who are in need of something as simple as mittens and a scarf to help stay warm!

Let's join together and partner with the East Metro Women's Council in their, "Wear Warm Mittens", mission to keep hearts and bodies warm this winter.

From now to October 10, OSLC will collect cold weather items to give to EMWC, who distributes to residents in need. Items needed are listed below:

- Coats (gently used and cleaned)
- Hats, Scarves, Mittens
- Boots (Sizes infants—Women's XXXL)

To drop off your items, look for the designated location in the Education Wing. Questions? Contact Karen Gieseke, Interim Children & Family Ministry Director, cfm@oslcstillwater.org or 651-439-5704, ext 23. ### VBS Blankets Warm Hearts & Lives — Thirty Blankets in Thirty Minutes!

This year's VBS children worked together to make 30 fleece blankets. The design on the blankets included the wording, "Jesus Loves One", which is a great message to share with others.

The grateful recipients of the blankets were the East Metro Women's Council. In an email regarding having received the blankets, it was shared that the bags of 30 blankets were set out for the residents and within 30 minutes all the blankets were distributed! That's means for every minute for one half of an hours someone received a message telling them "Jesus Loves Them"! WOW!

Below is a thank-you received at OSLC, regarding the blankets:

"Dear OSLC kids,

Thank-you so much for your generous donation of Jesus Loves One blankets. Our residents will truly appreciate them. Thanks for thinking of EMWC (East Metro Women's Council). Enjoy your fall! The Staff & Residents of EMWC"

Great job, OSLC children, of spreading the Gospel!

Domestic Violence: Take Note

Domestic violence is a pattern of abusive or violent behavior in a dating or domestic relationship. It includes both words and actions that hurt family members or intimate partners.

Examples of abuse include:

- actual or threatened physical harm
- keeping a partner from contacting their family or friends
- withholding money
- stopping a partner from getting or keeping a job
- sexual assault
- stalking
- emotional/verbal abuse

Intimidation, isolation, coercion, and physical battery and their combinations precipitated in their various forms characterize domestic violence. Anyone (male or female) at any age and from any social or cultural background can be victims of abuse. Women, however, experience abuse at reportedly higher rates.

It is so important for those who are abused to remember:

You are not alone

It is not your fault

Habitat for Humanity

Our Saviors once again participated with other St. Croix Valley churches providing volunteer crews for two weeks, assisting with a Habitat for Humanity house project.

The home is located at 1831 Whitaker Street in White Bear Lake (just south and west of the intersection of Hwys 95 and 61 on the south side of WBL), and OSLC had several individuals that assisted with both construction and noon lunches during the two weeks. The home is now completed, and the new owner, Tiffany Price, is ready to move in. A dedication ceremony was held on September 16th.
